dedicated to the magical arts and our artists are handpicked from the magic community.

Our exquisite customer service is quite unlike anything you have experienced before.

We create memories that will last a lifetime.

Hi, I'm Dean Williamson. Founder of The Factory Of Magic. I created this agency because I am passionate about the magical arts and I wanted to create a true platform to showcase the best of the UK's Magicians.

As an experienced performer myself I know what it takes to ensure your event has the best in high value entertainment. It's equally important that you are given exceptional customer service before, during and after your event.

The aim of this brochure is to get you excited and give you a glimpse into what you can expect from our performers and the overall experience.

As we say at the Factory 'we create memories that will last a lifetime'.

MEMORIES THAT LAST A LIFETIME

We understand and appreciate that when you book a performer you are making an investment and therefore you expect the very best.

You can be confident in the fact that our Magicians represent the highest quality you can find.

In addition to our exquisite customer service before, during and after your event we also provide bespoke giveaways, whether linked to your company branding or something special for the bride and groom.

Our performers will elevate the atmosphere at your event. Weeks, months and years later, your guests will continue to talk about what they saw our Magicians do.

These memories never fade.
